GIVE THANKS

“Give Thanks to the Lord, for He is GOOD; His love endures forever!”

Psalm 107:1

This past weekend I drove to Knoxville and just admired the beauty and tried to soak it all in. This is my favorite time of year. Crisp, beautiful days, with leaves putting on a glorious show. The majesty of our creator is on full display for all to see.

I went to Knoxville to have a reunion concert with my old band The Woodies. We last played together 37 years ago. What great memories I have from those old rock n roll band days! We toured for about 6 years throughout the southeast in college, playing mostly fraternity/sorority parties, formals, and even on a cruise ship. I was one of 4 members and played lead guitar and sang some harmony vocals. We had an incredible amount of fun. I remember often laughing so hard and for so long that my stomach cramped. The other members were great singers and musicians, not too crazy, and good men.

To make this weekend even better, UT beat Alabama. I was a very happy man driving back home and seeing God’s creation all over again. As I get older, I am more appreciative of shared experiences in my life.

I have a wife that I don’t deserve. I define the term as having “outkicked my coverage” when I married her. My beautiful family is all doing well, and have incredibly generous and Godly hearts. I know that every day is a gift. My children’s lives and health are so precious and can be changed in an instant without warning. After 58 years of life, I fully realize that life is full of ups and downs. I’ve had more than my share of both. When I’m down and facing hard times, I do my best to be thankful in ALL things (James 1: 2-3) and know that it is still God working in my life although I may not understand why. Victories are not as sweet without knowing what loss feels like. I recognize good days as blessings and do my best to cherish them and give great praise, as I well know and remember the sting of bad days.

All I can do is to continue to recognize where all that is good comes from. I am thankful to God above for his blessings to this simple, undeserving man. My hope is that all of you have the best Thanksgiving no matter where you are on your journey.

Happy Thanksgiving!

-John Griffith

“REJOICE in the Lord always. I will say it again: REJOICE! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:4-7.

"Very up front with every part of the process from the consultation all the way through. I worked mostly with Ryan throughout the process of my case and he was awesome! Replied to every email and call quickly and reached out as soon as he had any updates on my case. If you need a personal injury attorney I would highly recommend this firm!"

Hayleigh N.

"Jessica & Josh helped me so much with navigating any problems I had from my car accident. Jessica truly made this process so much easier! I would recommend Griffith Law to anyone!"

Lori L.

"John and Kirby were fantastic to work with. They made the entire process run smoothly."

Jessica D.

"I couldn't have asked for a better law firm to represent me in my auto accident claim. They were efficient, thorough, and helpful. They were able to settle my case in a very timely manner, and for that I am truly grateful."
